Twitter

<https://twitter.com/AcvComms>

The screenshot shows the Twitter profile for AshteadCVComms (@AcvComms). The profile picture is the Ashtead Community Vision logo, which includes a house icon and the text "ASHTeAD COMMUNITY VISION local planning for the future". The bio states: "ACV was set up in response to the Localism Act 2012 to ensure Ashtead residents & businesses have a say in the future development and planning in our village." It also lists the location as "Ashtead, Surrey, UK", the website "ashteadcommunityvision.org.uk", and the join date "Joined October 2013". There are 56 tweets, 12 following, and 71 followers. The main content area shows three tweets: 1) A tweet from Feb 29 asking residents to take a survey by Feb 29, with a link to surveymonkey.co.uk/r/233M732. 2) A retweet from Feb 3 by Tony Tuley stating that the website has over 750 hits. 3) A tweet from Feb 2 asking residents to attend a public consultation on Saturday, 6th February, at 10am at Peace Memorial Hall. Below these are two more retweets: one from Jan 16 by Melanie Rose and another from IBM Retail.

Facebook
